

The Philosophy of HARM REDUCTION

We want to find out about members of our communities relationship is with harm reduction. The questions below will help you prepare and think about your answers to the form on harmreductionphilosophy.com, we encourage you to spend some time thinking before you respond.

The Questions

- 1 How did you come to believe in harm reduction?
- 2 What does harm reduction mean to you?
- 3 Please rate the following statements (1 = Not at all, 5 = I strongly believe this):
 - Harm reduction is part of policy change. 1 2 3 4 5
 - Harm reduction is part of social justice. 1 2 3 4 5
 - Harm reduction can exist alongside other models. 1 2 3 4 5
 - Harm reduction is just about reducing drug and alcohol risks. 1 2 3 4 5
- 4 How is harm reduction connected to policy change?
- 5 How is harm reduction connected to social justice?
- 6 How is harm reduction ethical?
- 7 How do you live harm reduction in your daily life?
- 8 Please let us know what you understand these harm reduction slogans to mean:
 - Any positive change.
 - Meeting people where they are at.
 - Support. Don't punish!
- 9 Do you currently personally identify with any existing philosophies?
- 10 Anything else you think we should know/consider.

We also ask for your name and contact email, please note with these as with all the questions you may choose to not answer if you prefer.